

Call for Expression of Interest

The purpose of this Call for Expression of Interest is to solicit interest from existing or prospective partners that wish to participate in a UNHCR operation and contribute complementary resources (human resources, knowledge, funds, in-kind contributions, suppliers and or equipment) to achieving common objectives as agreed in a Project Partnership Agreement. NGOs and other non-profit entities interested in partnering with UNHCR are encouraged to express their interest by registering on the Partner Portal (<https://partner.unhcr.org>), and submitting their Expression of Interest and Concept Note(s) through it.

Potential applicants are requested to fill the selection criteria in this form.

Call for Expression of Interest No : 2
Project Title	Assistance to Refugees in Sri Lanka - Refugee Center in Negombo
Project Locations	Negombo
Brief Background of the Project	Sri Lanka is not a signatory to the 1951 Convention or its 1967 Protocol relating to the Status of Refugees. There are no national procedures for refugee status determination. UNHCR, with the agreement of the Government of Sri Lanka carries out refugee status determination. This project seeks to establish an inclusive community refugee center in Negombo, to improve the social environment of refugees in Sri Lanka through provision of space for community based activities, sessions on SGBV, child rights and other protection-related issues, focus group discussions, sharing and learning, psychosocial counselling, consultations, discussions between UNHCR, Partners, PoCs and other stakeholders. 585 refugees (67.7%) of total refugee population are targeted in this project who are living in and around Negombo. This includes 230 minors and 355 adults.

Goal/Objective, Expected outcome and Main Activities	Goal – Protection and Mixed Solutions Objective 1 Population has optimal access to education Output.1.1 Lifelong learning opportunities provided or supported Main Activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • English classes: teachers will be volunteers of the community and trained by British Council. Language classes are most useful to facilitate the integration in the resettlement country • ICT classes: present day demands for ICT knowledge are huge, especially in the countries of your resettlement; these classes will bridge the information gap and make refugees ICT literate • Psychosocial counseling: a female counselor will address the psychological needs many refugees have. Especially women who suffered most before reaching Sri Lanka will be targeted • Women groups: Sharing, working, experiencing together to regain normalcy again and support each other, training in different skills. • Skills development: In preparation for the resettlement, the refugees are in need for different skills. The center will together with the refugees determine which skills are needed and how the curriculum should be planned. • Field trips and sports: Trips and sport outings will provide activities to break the daily routine. Swimming lessons will be needed to adapt to the future situation and provide a potentially life-saving skill. • Referral to UNHCR protection incidents reported at the center affecting UNHCR's PoCs.
